PELHAM GRANGE

ARTHUR P. ATWOOD.

Last Wednesday evening at Pilgrim hall the Pelham Grange held its annual installation. There were a goodly number present and were it not for the fact that there is so much sickness in town the attendance would have been much larger.

The installation was conducted by Past Master Alice B. Colburn of Dracut and was performed in a most admirable manner. Many complimentary remarks were made regarding the very efficient way in which she performed the same too easy task. Mrs. Colburn was ably assisted by Mrs. Sadie H. Colburn of Dracut Grange. A vote of thanks was extended to Mrs. Colburn for her fine work.

The following is the list of officers for the year 1922: Master, Arthur P. Atwood; Overseer, Sheelie H. Lyon; Lecturer, Mrs. Alice Hillman; Assistant lecturer, Mrs. Estella Hyde; Steward, Charles H. Stickney; Assistant Steward, J. Lewis Hill; Chaplain, Susan M. Smith; Treasurer, Charles W. Hobbs; Secretary, Mary F. Hobbs; Gate Keeper, Arthur H. Peabody; Pomona, Grace M. Hall; Cerer, Clara B. Jones; Floria, Jennie H. Stickney; Lady Assistant Steward, Blanche Hillman; Pianist, Florence A. Cutter.

After the newly installed officers had been conducted to their stations brief speeches were made by several visitors, after which the new lecturer briefly outlined the method adopted for the programs for the ensuing meetings for the year. At each meeting the program of the next meeting will be read. Those announced to have a part in the exercise will have been secured to do the work assigned them and thus no part of the program will be left to a chance as to whether it will be carried out as assigned or not. This is a good idea and should serve to make the meetings more interesting.

The printed programs were distributed and were much appreciated. They were done by the Courier-Citizen Co. and on the front cover have a neat picture of Beaver brook. It makes a dainty program. A box supper was enjoyed at the close of the installation and before the exercises closed a vote of thanks was extended to the retiring lecturer for her services during the past three years.
