Golden Wedding of Dr. N. W. Batchelder and Mrs. A. Batchelder

The golden wedding anniversary of Dr. N. W. Batchelder and Mrs. A. Batchelder was celebrated at the town hall on Wednesday evening. The couple, along with their friends and neighbors, were greeted with congratulations and good wishes from many in attendance. Among those present were many who had known the couple for many years, including members of the Batchelder and Haverhill families.

The ceremony was attended by friends and neighbors, who gathered to celebrate the occasion. Among those present were Mrs. W. H. Wiggin of Lowell, who was a close friend of the Batchelders. The couple was also visited by several other guests, who brought flowers and gifts to mark the occasion.

The evening was filled with music and dancing, and the festivities continued into the night. The couple was showered with love and affection, and their friends and neighbors wished them many more happy years together.

The wedding anniversary was a joyous occasion, and the couple was surrounded by the love and support of their friends and family. The celebrations continued throughout the evening, and the couple was filled with happiness and gratitude for the love and support they had received.