Rural Letter Carrier William S. Kohler on his trip last Monday discovered evidence of a break at the Francis Bowman residence and notified Chief Arthur H. Peabody, who investigated and found that much loot had evidently been removed through a rear door. Mr. Bowman finally was contacted in Boston, where he and Mrs. Bowman are spending the winter. The break occurred Sunday night. Today, an inventory of the missing articles compiled by the Bowman's amounted to between $2000 and $2000.00. This included a valuable household furnishings and who died at the Veterans hospital. The funeral was held in the home of the late Ellis Robman.
