PELHAM, Feb. 11 — Funeral of Leland N. Boutwell, valued household furnishings and who died at the Veterans Hospital. Electrical equipment, tools, portable generator also were stolen. A reception at the home of the late Ellis Robinson also was forcibly entered. A group of other vehicles were stolen. Dr. and Mrs. Thomas Eames of Sumerthorne, the services, including the sale of a valuable watch, reported to Chief Peabody N. H., post commander, Albron that no material damage resulted. Howard, and Comrade Paul Curley. Mrs. Eames formerly was Mrs. Nash, chaplain; Comrade Henry F. Spaulding of Derry, color guard, and Veteran Joseph Threlfall, flag bearer. Burial was in Gibson addition cemetery. Rev. Mr. Koffman conducted prayer at the grave followed by a military service conducted by American Legion post 63, Salem Depot. The firing squad consisted of Alfred Grocutt, Shrewsbury, Mass., and Arthur Greenwood of this town, assisted by Daniel S. Atwood and Frederick Houlue. The bearers were Frank C. Carleton, Richard Mansfield, Fred Garland, Elmer Fairbanks, Farker Crawford and William Dawson.

Thieves Active
It was discovered yesterday that thieves again had been raiding residences in the Bush Hill road in the neighborhood of the Noves residence, from which a valuable parlor stove and pumping outfit recently were stolen. Rural Letter Carrier William S. Koehler on his trip last Monday discovered evidence of a break at the Francis Bowman residence and notified Chief Arthur H. Peabody who investigated and found that much loot had evidently been removed through a rear door. Mr. Bowman finally was contacted in Boston, where he and Mrs. Bowman are spending the winter. The break occurred Sunday night. Today, an inventory of missing articles compiled by the Bowman's amounted in value to between

Pelham Historical Society, Pelham, New Hampshire
William T. Hayes & Karen Genotter