Pelham

Couple Honored on 25th Anniversary; Notes of Interest

PELHAM, N. H., Nov. 23—The 25th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Walter S. Burton was celebrated at Pelham town hall Saturday night when friends and relatives from Wakefield, Everett, Cambridge, Tyngsboro and Dracut, Mass., and Manchester, Nashua, Hudson, Milford and Pelham, joined, to honor the occasion.

The affair was arranged by Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Houle, Mr. and Mrs. Fred B. Swett and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hoffman. There were 100 guests.

Mrs. Vernon Campbell, the bridesmaid; Mrs. Hazel Howard, pianist, and Harold O. Bell, the best man at the ceremony 25 years ago, attended Saturday night and gave places of honor.

The evening’s program follows: Piano duet, Mrs. Jesse Hoffman and Miss Alice Morrill; solo, John Fiske; violin solo, Mrs. Raymond Allard, Mrs. Swett, accompanist; an original solo was given by Frank C. Forsie, Daniel Atwood, Henry Hastings, Edward Lyon, Walter Wood, Robert Ouellette, Harry Mortlock, Gains Barrett, Arthur H. Peabody, Ervin Burton and George Fuller. Mrs. Constance Swett played for dancing until a late hour.

Mr. and Mrs. Burton were presented a maple dinette set and a purse with congratulations and best wishes of their many friends. The gift from their children was a silver coffee set. Refreshments were served in the banquet hall, where a beautiful wedding cake was featured.

The Rev. Mrs. Elda Ives, instructor in “rural church” at Andover-Newton Theological school, supplied the pulpit at Pelham Congregational church yesterday. Mrs. Ives is a member of “the commission of the rural church” of the national Congregational church and has preached and travelled extensively. Following yesterday’s service a fellowship dinner was served in the dining room by men of the congregation with Frederick W. Lyon chairman.

Wilmer Lucien Paquette was enlisted in the naval reserve for the duration and Roland A. Paquette, his brother, is enlisted in the U. S. navy for a six-year period. Both are sons of Mr. and Mrs. Wilmer Paquette of Gage hill.

Mrs. William C. Brown is at Lake Worth, Fla., for the winter. Arthur Mansfield, Henry G. and Bryant Fairbanks and Frank Sexton recently returned from deer hunting in the Passaconaway valley. Frank Sexton shot an eight-point buck.

Mrs. Estelle Hyde Richardson is at Camp Hill, Pa., for the winter.