FUNERALS

The funeral of George S. Butler was held at his late home in Pelham, N. H., yesterday afternoon, and was largely attended by sorrowing friends and his former townsmen. The large

GEORGE S. BUTLER.

House was completely filled. Captains Boucher, Willstead, Col. J. C. Bennett, Chevalliers Chas. A. Parker, D. M. Leary, Truman Parker, W. H. Peabody, Lieut. Elliott Morgan represented Canton Pawtucket, I. O. O. F., and Wannamack enclosure was represented by Capt. A. D. Miller, C. A. Marshall, J. S. Richardson, E. L. Bryant, S. T. Chaplin, D. O. P. Buras and Henry Carroll. Pelham grange, No. 244, P. of E., sent the following delegates: W. E. Pearson, Fiera E. Pearson, Allie Hillman, Mrs. B. F. Cutter, Mrs. Hoyle, Mrs. Frank Hillman Mrs. Fiera Jones, Mrs. F. A. Cutter, Mrs. R. M. Hills, Mrs. B. F. Cutter, r. and Mrs. P. A. Greesly, Miss Amanda Clay and Miss Lena Clay. There were present a delegation of some 30 members from the General Stark colony, Pilgrim Fathers.

The following were present from Centreville lodge, I. O. O. F.: Past Grand John W. Stewart, L. C. Hall, Vice Grand C. A. Wilson and John W. Peabody. A large delegation of townsmen from Dracut were present. Regent L. A. Hodgman and Orator C. E. Edwards were present from the Royal Arcanum.

Rev. J. L. Hoyle, of the Congregational church, and Rev. C. L. Merriam, of Derry, N. H., officiated at the solemn services. Each clergyman eulogized the deceased in most fitting terms for his faithful work in the Sunday school, church, and in the public schools of this town.

He said: "This man will be missed Whatever he did was done well, and whenever called upon was always ready to respond in sickness and in death. Truly he was more than the average man. As an ex-senator, ex-representative, sheriff and constable, the voters loved him."

Mrs. Coleman, Rev. J. L. Hoyle, Mrs. Johnson and D. M. Webster effectively sang "Ne'er the, My Oul, to Thee," "Some Sweet Day By and By" and "Asleep in Jesus." Rev. Mr. Merriam offered prayer, and Rev. Mr. Hoyle pronounced the benediction. The remains were then escorted to Pelham Centre by the orders above named, or which he was a member.

The following were the bearers: Captains T. B. Boucher, Chevalliers Chas. A. Parker, Canton Pawtucket; Charles Hobbs, M. F. Woodbury, Willis Nutter, M. L. Jones, his neighbors.

Following are some of the floral tributes: Canton Pawtucket, vacant chair; Centreville lodge, three forks; Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Weinberger, Mrs. Farmer, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Speer, Mr. C. J. Hamblett, Mr. Abdon C. Chase and family, Mrs. Augusta Hillman, Herman A. Chase and family, Abdon Chase and family, Mr. Frank Butler and family, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wheeler, Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Jones, Jax. H. Hunt, Jax. P. Whiteman sent spray, as did Lowell council, R. A.; cross and crescent, Pilgrim Fathers; pillow from the children; wreath of white roses from Mrs. Burton; crescent on base from Pelham grange.

The rite of the Odd Fellows was performed by Noble Grand John W. Stewart and Chaplin Chas. A. Wilson, and the sun was setting in the west the remains of one of the nobly

Pelham Historical Society, Pelham, New Hampshire
William T. Hayes & Karen Genoter