Successful Bazaar

The annual Christmas bazaar was held at the First Congregational church Fellowship room Saturday afternoon and evening. The affair started at 2 o'clock. The committee had selected Mother Goose theme for the affair. Many of the chairman of the booths were appropriately dressed, with Mrs. Neal Balco dressed as Mother Goose. Mrs. Stella Carleton and Mrs. At Fairbanks were in charge of the turkey supper that was served. Over 100 pounds of turkey was served for the late comers who were

PELHAM CHURCH FAIR WORKERS—Shown at the annual Congregational church fair held at the church social hall is the above group of workers. Seated, left to right, Mrs. Edith Balcom, Mrs. Gertrude Garland, Miss Blanche Hillman. Standing, Mrs. Alvina Spaulding, Miss Helen Morris, Mrs. Mary Sherburne and little Miss Claudia Taylor.

PELHAM CONGREGATIONAL FAIR—Pictured are some of the workers at the annual Pelham Congregational church’s fair held at the church hall. Left to right, Miss Martha Jewett, Miss Sylvia Koehler, Mrs. Elizabeth T. Simpson, Mrs. Cair Hamlin, Miss Clara Jones and Mrs. Madeleine Annis.