PELHAM, N.H.

Census Enumeration Here
Shows Largest Population in 40 Years—1008 Inhabitants Counted.

Pelham, N. H., May 17.
Harry Crompton of Hudson, who recently completed the 1940 census enumeration for Pelham, has returned his tabulation to the state board, which has informed the selectmen of this town that the number of inhabitants enumerated was 1008. This is an increase from 814 taken 10 years ago by Elmer Combs of North Pelham. Charles W. Hobbs, who took the census in 1920 found 974 inhabitants. The official enumeration taken by Harvey F. Hillman in 1910 was 928.