Pelham

(Special to The Sun)

PELHAM, N. H., Aug. 13—Miss Mary A. Cutter of Stonebridge camp entertained members of her girlhood Sunday school class recently, an all-day affair. The class was organized about 1885. The teacher was Mrs. Charles Hardy, a loyal and enthusiastic worker in the church during her residence in Pelham. Her work continued with this class of girls for more than 30 years.

Those present were Mrs. Charles Merriman of Hartford, Conn.; Mrs. Joseph Hartley of Manchester, N. H.; Mrs. Otis Butler of Lowell, Mrs. George Johnson of Lawrence, Mrs. Charles Scott of Derry, N. H.; and Misses Alice Stickney, Bessie Jones, Mary Hobbs and Miss Cutter. The hostess served a delicious chicken dinner, the afternoon was spent in contests and Red Cross work, then a picnic supper was enjoyed under the pines.
