PELHAM

Miss Alyce L. Gage Weds
Raymond W. Schlapp, Lawrence Attorney — R. E.
Houle Re-enlists in Navy.

Pelham, Oct. 16.
At a pretty home wedding on the afternoon of Thursday, Oct.
12, Miss Alyce P. Gage, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank P. Gage of Gage Hill became the bride of Mr.
Raymond W. Schlapp, son of Mrs.
Florence Schlapp of Lawrence.
The simple ring ceremony was performed at 4 o'clock by Rev. Robert A. Byler, pastor of the Pelham Congregational church.
Guests were present from Pelham, Lawrence, Methuen and Dracut.
Prior to and during the ceremony, Miss Rhoda Richardson sang "I Love You Truly," and
"O Promise Me," accompanied by Mrs. Rena Currier. As the bridal party entered the living room, Mrs.
Currier played the Bridal March from "Lohengrin." The bride wore a crepe gown of French blue with doublet accessories and carried a bouquet of white and tailsman roses.
The couple was attended by Mr.
and Mrs. Joseph Allen of Methuen.
Mrs. Allen, a cousin of the bride, wore a gown of doublet velvet with matching accessories and carried a bouquet of yellow chrysanthemums and delphinium. Au-turn foliage and flowers were used to make an effective background for the wedding party.
The bride's mother wore wine colored crepe with corsage of pink roses and the bridegroom's mother wore blue figured crepe and corsage of pink roses. After the ceremony the wedding party attended a dinner at "The Kirkshire" in Andover.
As a traveling costume the bride wore a brown ensemble. She is a graduate of Keene Normal school and the University of New Hampshire and has taught for several years in Merrimack, N. H. Mr. Schlapp is a graduate of Bowdoin college and of the Boston University Law school. He is a member of the Massachusetts Bar Association and has practiced law in Lawrence for the past five years.

Following a wedding trip to the White mountains, New York city and Canada, Mr. and Mrs. Schlapp will make their home at the Gage homestead.

Subject to the approval of the Bureau of Navigation, Robert E. Houlé of North Pelham has re-enlisted in the hospital corps of the U. S. navy. He will receive his former rating as hospital apprentice, first class. After three years' service he was honorably discharged in 1934 from the Portsmouth naval hospital, where he was assigned. He is a graduate of the U. S. Navy hospital corps school, Portsmouth, Va., and trained at the U. S. Navy hospital at Portsmouth, N. H., navy yard.

Miss Ruth Richardson, a graduate from Keene Normal, is assigned at Hampton Centre, N. H., as assistant teacher in the first and fourth grades.
