PELHAM CHURCH
LIBRARY BENEFIT

Endowment of the public library and Congregational church, of Pelham, N. H., is included among the public bequests, estimated at more than $100,000, in the will of Mrs. Mary Proctor Harris, widow of Ira F. Harris, Nashua banker, probated July 2.

To the Pelham public library is bequeathed $1000 to be known as the "Mary T. Gage fund," the income to be used for the purchase of books. Mrs. Harris also left all the books in her home and a tall backed chair and three-legged light stand which were once the property of Thomas Gage, pioneer of the Gage family in Pelham to the Pelham library.

After the death of Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Haines of Nashua, or in the event that they do not accept certain provisions of the will, real estate in Orange street, Nashua, is to be sold and the money received from it divided equally among the Congregational church, Pelham, the Presbyterian church, Windham, and the First church, Nashua. Mrs. Harris also bequeathed $20,000 to the Nashua library, the income to provide lectures, $20,000 to the library as a book purchase fund and $10,000 for landscaping Greeley park, Nashua. The total of her public bequests is estimated at more than $100,000.