Pelham

Death of Prominent
Native of This Town

(Special to The Sun)

PELHAM, N. H., Aug. 3—Carl Richard Hillman, a native of this town, died at the Fitzgerald hospital in Philadelphia, Pa., after a long illness. He was born in Pelham, February 12, 1887, the son of the late Frank H. and Alice Greeley Hillman. He attended the town schools, Pinkerton academy of Derry, N. H., and the University of Pennsylvania in Philadelphia, Pa. He was a veteran of World War I. After 32 years of service with the Curtis Publishing company of Philadelphia he retired because of ill health. Most of those years he was manager of direct mail advertising for that company and he was known throughout the country for his promotion of and work in that field of advertising.

Besides his wife, Charlotte Foster Hillman, he leaves one daughter, Mrs. James Bennett of Youngstown, Ohio; one son, Richard of Morristown, Pa.; six grandsons, two brothers, Fred Hillman of St. Petersburg, Fla., and Ralph Hillman of Auburndale, Mass.; two sisters, Blanche Hillman and Mrs. Ernest Sherburne of this town.

Pelham Grange, No. 244, P. of O., was represented by Mr. and Mrs. Harry L. Edwards, Sr., Mrs. Alma Stiles, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer G. Raymond, Mr. and Mrs. Fred W. Garland, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel S. Atwood, Sr., Edmund Landry, Mrs. Alvina Spaulding, Mrs. Stella Carleton, Mrs. Thelma Boutwell, Mrs. Winifred Stevens, Mrs. Walter S. Burton, Mrs. Frederick A. Houle, Robert Rowbotham, Mr. and Mrs. Randall Richardson, Mrs. Ralph Harmon, Arnold Balkom, Miss Irene Stecklewicz, Mrs. Doris Parker.

The delegation from the First Congregational church of Pelham comprised Mr. and Mrs. Herman Styles, Mrs. Ernest Overlock, Sr. and Mrs. C. E. Morris, Miss Helen Noyes, Mr. Alton Hodgeman, George Mudoon, William Livingston, Mr. Alva M. Taylor, Ralph Boutwell, Mrs. Hazel Seifert, Willard Smith, Mrs. Albert Nickerson, Miss Blanche Hillman, Mrs. Ernest Sherburne, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Janocha, Miss Clara Jones, Mrs. Barbara Hines, Mrs. Ada Carleton, Mrs. Chester Spaulding, Sr., Mr. and Mrs. Walter Burton, Mrs. Frank Carleton, Miss Florence March, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Herkelman, Mrs. Rowbottom, Mrs. Paul Stevens, Mrs. Bernard Hogue, Miss Mary Cutler, Warren Herbert, Mrs. Irving Parker, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Parker, Mrs. Frank Carleton, Jr., William Melanson, Mr. and Mrs. Peiton and Mr. Leonard.

The bearers were George F. Currier, Richard H. Currier, Arthur H. Peabody, John W. Peabody, John F. Wood and Walter H. Wood.

The many flowers required the use of a special car to convey them to Pelham Centre cemetery, where the above named officers and members of Ancient York lodge, AF & AM, exemplified the burial ritual of their order, at the conclusion of which Rev. Mr. Taylor pronounced benediction.

Arrangements were in charge of Funeral Director Robert T. Morse.
