Frances Hobbs Becomes Bride of Lawrence Cook

Pelham, June 22—At a charming summer wedding late Sunday afternoon in the Pelham Congregational church, Frances Louise Hobbs, daughter of Charles Winthrop Hobbs, and Lawrence C. Cook, also of Pelham were married by Rev Thomas Roden, in a double ring service before 200 guests.

The bride was attended by her sister, Mrs Wayne C. LaBelle of Lowell, Mass., formerly Harriet Hobbs. Mr Cook was attended by Alfred Ducharme of Pelham. Charles W. Hobbs, Jr., a brother of the bride, and Russell Mason, a cousin of the groom, acted as ushers. The bride was given in marriage by her father, Miss Bernice Moulton played the wedding music.

The ceremony was performed before a background of palms with giant baskets of gladiolus and delphinium and roses with lighter candelabra arranged by Lester Morse.

The bride wore navy sheer with a picture hat and an orchid wrist bouquet. The matron of honor wore navy sheer with white accessories, and a wrist bouquet of yellow rose buds.

A reception followed in the social rooms of the church. Receiving with the bridal party was Mrs Grace Cooke of Lynn, Mass., mother of the bride. Baskets of giant syringas sent by Mrs Barbara Linde from her Cumpus Pond home decorated the room. The decorations of mock orange blossoms and pink roses at the bride's table, were the gift of Miss Clara Jones.

Miss Yvonne Ducharme, a friend of the bride, cut and served the wedding cake, and Miss Dorothy Mason, a cousin of the bridegroom, was in charge of the guest book. Miss Mary Hobbs, an aunt of the bride, and Mrs Zena Currier were hostesses, while Miss Frances Hobbs, aunt of the bride, directed the party.

Refreshments were served by Florence Marsh, Helen Morris, Hazel Spaulding, Alice Bassett, Louise Hayes and Ethel Hayes.

Among the guests were Mr and Mrs Alwyn Mason, Arthur H. Peabody, Mr and Mrs Herbert Richardson and son John, Mr and Mrs Arnold Philbrick, Mr and Mrs Wayne LaBelle, Mr and Mrs Raymond LaBelle, of Lowell Mass., Mr and Mrs Everett Richards of Saugus, Mass., Mr and Mrs Joseph Konkel, and Miss Gladys Oclera of Lynn, Mass., and Mr and Mrs Ernest Law of New Haven, Conn.

The couple left for a wedding trip to Boston and New York city. On their return they will reside at Pelham Center.
