Roberts—Hobbs

Lieutenant Lawrence Roberts and Miss Florence Elizabeth Hobbs, both of West Chester, were married at the chapel at Fort Monroe, Va., yesterday, shortly after Lieutenant Roberts received his commission as 2nd Lieutenant in the Coast Artillery, U. S. A.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Winthrop Hobbs, of Pelham, N. H. She is a graduate of the Pelham schools and High School at Lowell, Mass., Class of 1939, and is now a Senior at the State Teachers College at West Chester. During her college course she has made here home with her aunt, Miss Frances Hobbs, 9 South Church street, who is a member of the college faculty.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Eavenson Roberts, of 546 East Biddle street. He is a graduate of the West Chester schools and was a Junior at State Teachers College when inducted into the service. He received his preliminary training at Camp Croft, and was later stationed at the Staten Island Terminal, where he attained the rank of Corporal. He entered Officer Candidage School at Fort Monroe, Va., and completed his officer's training successfully.

Mr. and Mrs. James Eavenson Roberts journeyed to Fort Monroe and attended the graduation and wedding of their son.

Lieutenant Roberts is awaiting military orders. His bride is returning to college to complete her education for a teaching career.

(above), of the U. S. Coast Artillery, who anticipates overseas duty. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Roberts, of 546 East Biddle street. Less than a month ago (March 19th) he was graduated from Officers' Candidate School at Fort Monroe, Va., and on the same day married Miss Florence E. Hobbs, of West Chester, a student at West Chester State Teachers College.