Death of Dr. Hyde Causes Much Sorrow—Had Practised Here for 25 Years.

The funeral services of Dr. Edward Hyde were held this afternoon at the Congregational church, Rev. J. Franklin Babb of Haverhill officiating, assisted by the local pastor, Rev. Milton V. McAllister. Miss Etta Thompson, soloist, of Lowell, sang several selections accompanied by Mrs. Frank H. Hillman, organist. Burial took place in the Centre cemetery. Samuel C. Mann, Fred A. Greesley, David E. Hubley, George P. Wood, Henry M. Currier and Frank H. Hillman were the bearers. Twenty-five years of active service in this vicinity surrounded Dr. Hyde with many pleasant associations. Devoted to his practice, his un-tiring and faithful service endeared him in a marked degree to his townspeople. His retirement a few years ago, much regretted by all who knew him, was necessitated by gradual declining health resulting in his death last Tuesday in the home of Clarence W. Richardson, where he had lately lived in seclusion. Besides his wife, Estelle F. Hyde, he leaves three daughters, Miss Elizabeth E. Hyde, Miss Vera W. Hyde of the town and Mrs. Burton W. Sherburne of Hartford, Conn.

Paul Greesley enlisted at Lowell yesterday in the United States army. He takes his final examinations today at Boston and if successfully passed will proceed to Fort Slocum, N. Y.
