PELHAM, N. H.

Marriage of Professor Roy E. Jones to Miss Corinne Tapley at Watertown, N. Y.

Pelham, N. H., Aug. 2.

Frank H. Lewis, in the radio branch of the naval service, after several months' duty on the battleship Arizona, has been enjoying an eight days' furlough among relatives and friends in town. He left this morning to report for duty tomorrow night at 6 o'clock.

Frederic A. Greeley of this town, who registered at Augusta, Kan., in June, where he had employment with the Empire Gas & Fuel Co. of that city, stands 134th in the district and expects to be called for military service about Aug. 22. He previously applied at Wichita, Kan., for enlistment in the naval service but was rejected on account of a defective right eye. He will spend the intervening time at home and when called intends to report at Milford, N. H. He returned by the way of Florida, visiting his brother, Paul E. Greeley, at Camp Johnston.

Word has been received of the safe arrival overseas of Roswell M. Raymond.

Mrs. R. M. Hills is visiting the Misses Alice and C. J. Moore at their cottage at Hampton beach for the week.

Mrs. Ella A. Prescott, formerly of Windham, N. H., died yesterday at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Sherman Hobbs, at Pelham Centre, aged 67 years, 8 months and 14 days.

A very pretty home wedding was that of Miss Corinne Tapley to Professor Roy Edwin Jones, which took place July 27 at 8 o'clock at the residence of the bride's mother, Mrs. Lilla M. Tapley, 164 Park avenue, Watertown, N. Y.

The ceremony was performed by Dr. Darwin P. Pickard, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, in the presence of relatives and intimate friends of the bridal couple.

The house was beautifully decorated with palms, ferns, pink and white mallow, Queen Anne's lace and yellow and white daisies, the ceremony taking place before a mantel banked with palms and ferns.

Four ribbon bearers, the Misses Natalie and Margaret Smith, Eleanor Cromley and Carol Northrop formed an aisle through which the bride and bridegroom entered the parlor.

After the reception a buffet breakfast was served to about 50 guests. The bride wore a gown of white crepe, short skirt, with "V" neck bodice, veil of georgette crepe, and... brodered with pearls, and she carried a bouquet of bride's roses and maidenhair fern. Her traveling gown was tan khaki kool with small black straw hat trimmed with Copenhagen blue Georgette.
Mrs. Tapley wore a white voile gown, trimmed with baby Irish lace.

Professor and Mrs. Jones left in the afternoon in their car for a trip through the Adirondacks and White mountains to Storrs, Conn., where they have taken a house on the college campus.

The bride is the only daughter of Mrs. Lilla M. and the late John D.
Tapley of Watertown. She is a graduame of the high school and of Pratt Institute, Brooklyn, taking a course in normal household science.

Professor Jones is a son of Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Jones of Pelham, N. H., was graduated in 1911 from the University of Maine at Orono, Me. He is a member of the faculty of the Connecticut Agricultural college, Storrs, Conn., and extension poultyman of the college.
