Junior High School Pupils
Present Two-Act Play—
Children's Day Exercises
Held at Church.

Pelham junior high school presented a two-act play at the town hall Friday night under the direction of Miss Bernice Lester, assistant principal. "Aunt Hetty" by Anne Coulter Martens, played by a cast of ten characters, was enjoyed by a large audience.
The scene of the play was "The living room at Parker Lodge, a country house and the time an evening in spring." The cast included: Leslie Harris, Robert Ackerman, Shirley Ann Atwood, Alice Houle, Rhoda Richardson, Roland Boucher, Muriel Forrest, John Vining. Prompting was done by Miss Mary Koehler.
Children's day exercises were held at Congregational church.
Sunday morning in charge of Mrs. Kathleen Atwood, assisted by Miss Hazel Spaulding.
The order of exercises was directed by Herbert S. Currier and consisted as follows:
Potted geraniums were distributed to all children present by Newton Garland, Warren Vining and Charlie Hobbs.
The junior choir was directed by Rev. Herbert M. Gale, Rev. Mr. Gale's parents, Dr. and Mrs. Gale of Perryville, Mo., are visiting at the parsonage. On Wednesday of this week they will go to Morrisville, Vt., for a visit with cousins, later to return here.
Dr. Gale will be the speaker at Pelham Congregational church a week from Sunday, June 26.
The Community Extension Service Council met at the junior high school building Wednesday evening, June 8. This was the second meeting since organization.
The council is made up of representatives from the various town organizations which work in connection with the state and county extension agents. The purpose of the council is to provide an opportunity for the agents to make known what they have to offer to the community, and also to allow the community representatives to acquaint the extension agents with the needs of the community.

Pelham Historical Society, Pelham, New Hampshire
William T. Hayes & Karen Genoter