PELHAM, N. H., April 8—A beautiful spring wedding took place Thursday evening at 7 o'clock in the Congregational church when Miss Mary E. Koehler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Koehler of Lowell, former residents of this town and Tech. Sgt. Harold E. Mooney, USMC, son of Mrs. Gladys Burton of Concord, N. H., were united in marriage by Rev. George B. Williams, pastor of the church.

The bride was given in marriage by her father and wore a gown of white satin with a coronet of white roses. The bridesmaid, Miss Dorothy B. Koehler, sister of the bride, wore a gown of figured pink organdy with a coronet of pink roses. The best man was Raymond J. Langlois of Collinsville. The double ring service was used.

The church was decorated with evergreens as a background for a white arch at the front of the sanctuary, and with white candles at each window. Miss Bernice Moulton presided at the organ, playing the Wedding March from "Lohengrin," as the bridal party entered the church.

The bride's gift to her bridesmaid was a pearl necklace and the groomsmen presented the best man a billfold.

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Richard W. Ivers, where a large group gathered to extend best wishes to the couple. Mrs. Raymond J. Langlois was in charge of the guest book. Sgt. and Mrs. Mooney left late in the evening on a short wedding trip. Sgt. Mooney will return to his post at Cherry Point, N. C., next week. Mrs. Mooney is to be graduated from Lowell State Teachers college this June, and has accepted a position as third grade teacher in Dighton, Mass., for the next year.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry O. Page and family of Augusta, Me., are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Harry H. Atwood.
