Hundreds Attend Day Exercises

Parade and Ball Game

Afternoon Program

(Part of The Sun)

PELHAM, N. H., Aug. 11—Pelham Center hummed with activity Thursday when hundreds of native sons and daughters with their many friends from near and far gathered for the 42nd annual Old Home day celebration sponsored by the First Congregational church.

From 10 o'clock in the morning until about midnight, crowds wandered about the grounds meeting and reminiscing with old friends. Postponed on Wednesday because of the rainy weather, the celebration, though a day late, was declared a great success by all.

Sales Booths

The various booths were well patronized throughout the day. Sales persons included: Dolls, Mrs. Harry Edwards, Mrs. Neal Balycom, Mrs. Chester Hill, Mrs. Ralph Harmon, Mrs. Frank Felzie, Mrs. Daniel Atwood, Mrs. Frank Atwood; white elephant, Mrs. Ann Morris, Mrs. Rose Horan; aprons, Mrs. Pearle Gage, Mrs. Mae Jackson, Mrs. Frances Carleton, Mrs. Alice Overlock; household, Mrs. Louise Hayes and Mrs. Bertha Jacobson; miscellaneous, Mrs. Carl Wilclund, Mrs. Albert Harris and Miss Marilyn Mansfield; candy, Mrs. Bertha Hodgonan; tonic, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Janocha; grains, Mrs. Maisie Richardson; vegetables, Fred E. Houle; home baked foods, Mrs. Nettie Spaulding, Mrs. Alvina Spaulding; fancy works, Mrs. Cora Butler; ice cream, Neal Balcom; children's table, Mrs. Doris Pegg; children's used clothes, Mrs. Gladys Stott; food tent, Mrs. Ethel Hayes and Mrs. Alma Stiles.

The center of attraction for the children during the day was the pony rides supervised by Franklin Garland. The game section, testing pitching skills of the patrons, was in charge of Clifton Hayes.
Serve Dinner

At noon in the church dining room, a delicious California chicken dinner was served by a committee headed by Miss Hazel Spaulding.

The children's parade at 2:30 under the direction of Mrs. Catherine Harmon and Mrs. Priscilla Atwood, was greatly enjoyed. Prizes were awarded to Leslie Atwood, dressed in a spangled ballerina costume; Timmy Ivers, dressed as an Indian boy; Carla

ELABORATE PROGRAM IN PELHAM—Hundreds of persons took part in the "old home day" program held in Pelham Thursday, and shown above are scenes of the event. Top photo, Girl Scouts from Camp Runels march along in the parade, feature of the day's event. Center photo shows beauty contest and mock wedding, with the children taking part. Left to right, Leslie Atwood, Janet S., Brandon, Clara Hubbs, Carol.