PELHAM

Frank M. Woodbury, Prominent Town Official,
Dies Here.

Frank M. Woodbury, an old and highly respected citizen of this town, died at his home in the Centre today, aged 84 years, 6 months and 5 days.

A native of Pelham, he always figured prominently in the affairs of the town and was distinguished as a leader on all important questions involving the town’s welfare. He was a life-long Democrat—uncompromising and aggressive—and widely known for his activities and staunchness of character—both in public and private life.

Mr. Woodbury conducted the general store at Pelham Centre for a period of nearly 35 years, also serving as postmaster during that period with the exception of the few years that he served the town in the state legislature. He also served as selectman, town treasurer, supervisor of the check lists and in other minor capacities, always highly influential as a citizen during many decades of his active life.

He was affectionately known as "Mel" among a very wide circle of friends in adjacent towns, as well as at home, and all will sincerely grieve at his passing.
